ABOUT

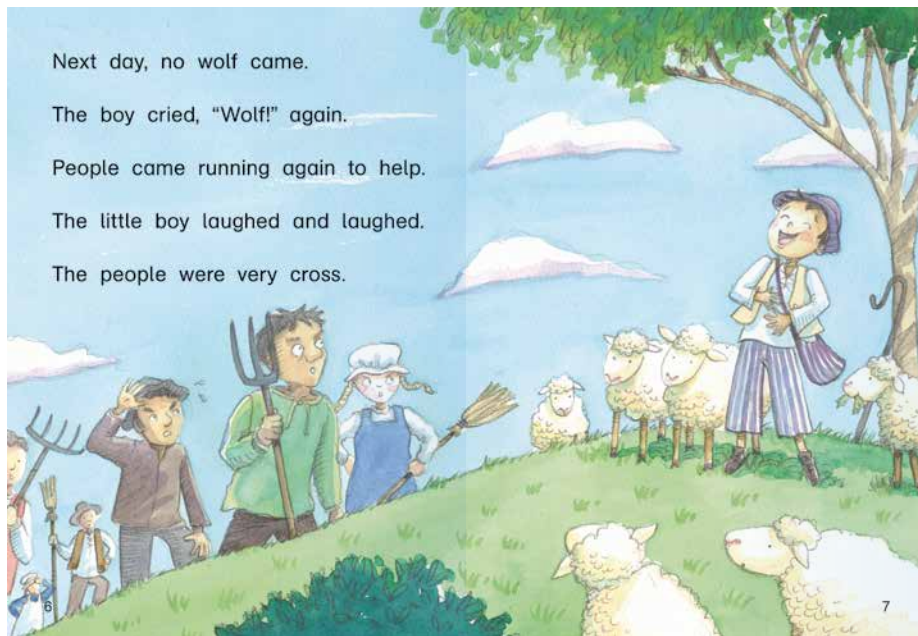

Old favourites are brought to life in this multi-cultural collection. Covering tales from around the world, it enables comparative literature studies across cultures.

Off went the tortoise.
"You are slow," said
the hare.

Off went the hare.
"I will win," he said.
The hare ran fast.

The Tortoise and the Hare © Josephine Croser & Emma Preston

Next day, no wolf came.
The boy cried, "Wolf!" again.
People came running again to help.
The little boy laughed and laughed.
The people were very cross.

The Boy Who Cried Wolf © Nigel Croser & Susy Boyer
